

Pathways in Mathematics

The following pathways are available from S1 - S6. Assessing and sharing progress is a continuous process between the learner, the teacher, parents/carers and the school. During the Broad General Education, there is no standard way to undertake assessment. At all stages, the repeated sequence of assessing progress, sharing progress and planning next steps will ensure that learners continue to move forward in their learning.

